

FORMER TORRANCE MAN CLAIMS OREGON BRIDE

Miss Ramona Corrine Berreth became the bride of W. A. Hanni in a double ring ceremony performed in Evangelical United Brethren Church, Oregon City, before an altar decorated with chrysanthemums and lighted tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Berreth, Oregon City, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Hanni, Oregon City, and formerly of Torrance.

Gowned in traditional white satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white Bible with a double orchid tied with white streamers. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Don Scharbrough, sister of the bridegroom, and a former Torrance resident, who wore a gown of yellow chiffon with matching halo hat, and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Joan Smith attired in blue, Sally Hull in pink, and Emily Schul in green. Each carried a nosegay bouquet matching that of the matron of honor.

Geraldine Berreth and Carltons Berreth, cousin and brother of the bride were flower girl and ring bearer for the couple. Best man for the bridegroom was Marvin Curry, with Don Anderson, Dale Wickwire and Don Scharbrough, ushers.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Mt. Pleasant Moose club hall gaily decorated with colored chrysanthemums. Centering the bride's table was a five tiered wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. Ted Berreth, aunt of the bride. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Cliff Chapin, Mrs. Rudolph Pavlinac, Mrs. Evelyn Berreth and Mrs. Doyle Schnell. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. R. A. Pavlinac Jr., cousin of the groom, and displaying the gifts were Mrs. Fred Smith, formerly of Lomita, and Bonita Knopp.

For her honeymoon trip to Narts Beach, Oregon, Mrs. Hanni selected a tan gabardine costume with white accessories. Her corsage was a double orchid. On their return the young couple will be at home at 221 Pearl street, Oregon City. Hanni is employed by Crown Paper mill and is associated with his father in farming operations.

The bride attended Oregon City High School. Hanni attended high school in Torrance.

Cub Scouts Spend Day in Hollywood

A trip to Hollywood (Saturday) which included their appearance at the Buster Brown radio broadcast and lunch at Farmer's Market proved to be a lot of fun for members of Mrs. Kurt Shery's Lomita Cub Scouts of Den 4, Pack 218.

Furnishing transportation were Mrs. G. Mackay, E. Schmidt and E. Abbott for the following Cub: Bruce Sullivan, Larry Mickunas, Donald Schulman, Jerry Jack, John Zell, David Jakes, Frank Schmidt, John Abbott, George Mackay, and Tom Shery. Also taking part in the day's activities were Lora Lee Abbott, Sharon Schmidt, Frances Mackay, Marion Shery, and Den Mother Mrs. Shery.

Dr. Randall to Address PTA Council

Dr. Harriett Randall will address the members of Gateway PTA Council and their guests at the Christmas meeting of the council Monday, December 5, taking for her subject "Panning for Gold of Health."

The speaker, in demand for organization meetings, is compelled to limit her appearance to larger groups and cannot appear before the local association meetings. Therefore, all PTA members interested are invited to attend the meeting to hear her vital message.

The council health chairman's department will be featured during the meeting to be presided over by Mrs. H. W. Nansen, president. The San Pedro High School association will be host for the day with the meeting scheduled for the school auditorium.

Impressive Installation Seats Chapter Officers

Gladys Mothersell and Frederick Cook Saturday evening were installed worthy matron and worthy patron of Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star in Torrance Masonic Temple, before a capacity gathering of members and friends of the chapter.

The chapter room was simply and beautifully decorated with golden chrysanthemums. Master of Ceremonies Vincent Viellenave, past patron, and Master of Torrance Lodge 447, F&AM, gave the address of welcome and introduced the honorary marshal, Violet Lock and honorary chaplain, Billie Kerber, past matron.

Worthy Matron Mildred Edwards and Worthy Patron Leonard Babcock were escorted to the East and presented, the former introducing the installing officers: Matron Helen Miller, past matron; Patron Homer Morgan, past patron; Marshal Jeanette Clark, past matron; Chaplain Edna Babcock, past matron; and Juliette Johnson, past matron, installing organist. She also presented Martha Robertson, deputy grand matron of the 72nd district, Dolores Melickjohn, deputy grand matron of the 73rd district, the matrons and patrons of 1949, also the past matrons and past patrons of Torrance Chapter and other chapters.

The symposium "Our Central Star," written by Verna Westhoven, grand treasurer, was read by Persia Fess, past matron, as the officers-elect were conducted into the chapter room and seated in chairs, prearranged to form a star, by the installing marshal and chaplain, Jeanette Clark and Edna Babcock. After the presentation of the flag by Claude Pierce, the assembly repeated the pledge of allegiance, and joined in singing "America."

The worthy patron invoked the "Blessings of God" upon all present and the membership of the order and after the impressive obligation by Homer Morgan, Gladys Mothersell was installed and escorted to her station to receive the grand honors. She was attired in a lovely white gown of taffeta and net, in an off shoulder design. Her bouquet grown by and presented to her by her worthy patron, Fred Cook, consisted of two gorgeous lavender orchids in a star of gold.

Fred Cook was installed by Homer Morgan, and took his place in the East, Vivian Cook and Gordon Mothersell, the wife and husband of the worthy matron and worthy patron, then assumed the duties of associate matron and associate patron.

At this time Lorene Ulrich, accompanied by Juliette Johnson at the piano, honored the assembly by singing "Little Rose Among the Roses," which she dedicated to the incoming honored matron. Her rendition of this and subsequent numbers were thoroughly enjoyed.

Others installed were: Secretary, Rosearnold Winters; Treasurer, Estelle Graham; Conduress, Alethea Smith; Associate Conduress, Joan Pierce; Chaplain, Irma Harrington; Marshal, Rita Foster; Organist, Lois Louche; Adah, Dorothy Moore; Ruth, Rose Schmidt; Esther, Maybelle Babcock; Martha Mabel Spencer, Electa, Estella DesJardins; Warder, Alice Spehger; Sentinel, Earl Babcock, past patron. Frederick Cook, presented the worthy matron with a beautiful gavel, made of hand polished black walnut, which had been obtained from her home state.

Worthy matrons and worthy patrons installed and elect, were escorted and presented and after introducing Edith Colbaugh, prompter; Elsie Peter-

Members of Bethel 50 Honor Queen

Miss Joy Oursler retiring honored queen of Torrance Bethel 50 International Order of Job's Daughters was complimented when the incoming queen, Miss Pat Cleere entertained with a personal shower at her home, 1637 Juniper avenue.

Purple and white, Job's Daughters colors, were used in floral decorations, table appointments, and menu. A large doll, dressed in Job's Daughter-styled Grecian robes, was placed on the table where Joy's lovely gifts were arranged.

Enjoying the party were the honoree and the Misses Marylou Hovild, Beverly Luster, Nancy Cunningham, Elsie Booth, Shirley Booth, Sydney Young, June Rambo, Martha Dunn, Carol Campbell, Janice Crabtree, Marian McDonald, Jane Fischer, Ann Stephens, Ann Olson, Janet Poh, Donna Howell and Beverly Rodgers.

Kaempfer Home Setting For Party

The family of Mrs. Daisy Driver of 220th street, Keystone, were summoned to her bedside from far and near before Thanksgiving and then remained for a reunion and their Thanksgiving dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kaempfer, 1836 W. 257th street.

Relatives who came to visit Mrs. Driver, who is still seriously ill, included Mrs. Earl Smith of Anchorage, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rinehart and family of Sedalia, Missouri; and Mrs. Tom Craig of Barstow. Other family members in this area are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reibel of Normont Terrace; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rinehart and family; Mrs. Charlotte Shook and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Lomita, and Mrs. Driver's sister, Mrs. Emma Watson of Keystone.

Gathering at the Harry Kaempfer home Thursday, when the big bird was cut and served with all the trimmings, the group, including Mr. and Mrs. Carl Streetman of Lomita, numbered 36 adults and children.

Art Craft Club Plans Yule Party

Plans for their annual Christmas party were made at the last meeting of Torrance Art Craft Club held at the Beech avenue home of the president, Mrs. Frances Snodgrass. The Yule party, set for December 16, will be given in the patio of Mrs. Addie Peck's home on El Dorado avenue.

Sharing hostess honors at the November meeting were Ruth Kilgore and Helen Burgenner Young. An attractive Thanksgiving theme was followed for table decorations and party refreshments. Work on ceramics, leather work, and lamp shades occupied the club group during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Nunn entertained at dinner Sunday evening for Rev. Keith McRoberts pastor of Wesleyan Methodist Church, Lawndale, Mrs. McRoberts and their two children. Completing the lovely program will be three selections by the string orchestra: "Legend" (a story of Christmas) by P. Tschalkowsky; "Air de Ballet" (from Alceste) by Gluck and "March of the Men of Harleck," a Welsh air.
